How We Work With You

Define Your Vision

What are you building?

A new RTD, a reformulated spirit, or a seasonal release. We start by understanding your product goals, production setup, and timelines.

Not sure which alcohol fits your vision? We can help to shape the brief.

Shape the Solution

We advise, source, and align.

Our specialists work with you to match the right spirit, ethanol, or cask to your formulation and brand goals.

We source from a trusted global and domestic network, with a focus on quality, regulatory clarity, and scale-readiness.

Deliver With Precision

Launch-ready supply, no surprises.

With UK stock on hand, flexible volumes, and full documentation support, we move fast, and ensure your product arrives exactly as expected.

Lets Talk Spirits

Whether you're scaling a core SKU or launching something new, Ethimex is ready to support your next move.
